Still trying to make my mind up on which boat to view so looking for some more forum wisdom. I think the volvo D12 715 is considered a sound engine. However have seen some boats with D12 615 or D12 700. Are there any issues with the older generation engines? Also considering would a Targa 48 be a much quieter boat than say a V55 or T52 with D12's?
