Resources - Predictive ROI
A podcast is just a tool. It's just a platform. A platform is simply a conduit for distributing or sharing content. No platform in and of itself will help your business grow revenue. Therefore, in order for your podcast to be of value to your business, there needs to be purpose behind the guests you invite to be on your show.

This book is not just about podcasting, it's a business road map for growing any business. I love the first 7 chapters of this book that talk about what is most important to growing your business. Before jumping in with the tactical recipe for creating a podcast Stephen lays the groundwork to set you up for success.
