Read Valve's Employee Company Handbook. It's Amazing. [Update]

Stumbled upon this very randomly and even though the book is meant for new employees of Valve, it's a good read for anyone who has been playing games by Valve. I have been a fan since Half Life till DOTA 2 and it was nice to know how they do what they do inside Valve. The book is a fun out-take rather than being a word-to-word manual.

Last April, Valve's employee handbook was leaked online and quickly spread to the far corners of the Internet. The reason? The handbook illustrates in detail what makes Valve such an unorthodox company: a truly flat structure, no titles, a modular physical structure, and an intense focus on hiring the "right" kind of people.
